

April Dahl
May 5, 2018

April Dahl is a life-long dancer, coach and choreographer who specializes in Argentine Tango. Her background includes ballet, contemporary dance, jazz, lyrical dance and over twenty years of American Style ballroom dancing. April holds a degree in Kinesiology with a focus on clinical practice and is a certified postural alignment specialist and ACSM personal trainer. She has studied dance across the United States, Europe and Argentina and has taught Argentine Tango for over 20 years. April is former member of and choreographer for Beyond Ballroom Dance Company, Rainy Day Cabaret, and a US finalist in the stage division of tango. She enjoys bridging the gap between stage and social dance forms for her students and is currently completing a five-year fellowship program under the guidance of Mariano "Chicho" Frumboli in order to expand her teaching principles and develop an even deeper understanding of partnership through tango. April owns Dahl Dance in Rochester, MN.
