

Taliat Tarsinov
May 15-16, 2017

Taliat Tarsinov is a highly sought-after coach and choreographer. His dance career began in Russia where he won the Russian Amateur Championship. He turned professional in 1988 and not only amassed numerous awards and titles (including Russian National Latin Champion, Russian National 10-Dance Champion and Soviet Union National Standard and Latin Show Dance Champion), but successfully represented Russia in over twenty World and European Championships as well. Taliat moved to the United States in 1992 and retired from competitive dancing in 1995. He is a World Class adjudicator, television host, published author, World Dance Congress lecturer and Director of the New York East Side Fred Astaire Dance Studio.

Coaching Available
(Call 410-825-5483)